Unoaked Chardonnay

Santa Lucia Highlands

APPELLATION

Santa Lucia Highlands

The Santa Lucia Highlands are perched on the terraces of the Santa Lucia Mountains. South of the Monterey Bay, this cool climate appellation benefits from a combination of sunshine and afternoon winds. These intense winds lead to a long growing season for grapes with rich and vibrant flavors.

TASTING NOTES

Our Unoaked Chardonnay is fermented entirely in stainless steel tanks which retain the bright fruit flavors of this wine. It leads off with fresh aromas of lime zest, pineapple, green tea and wet stone before leading into flavors of green apple, honeysuckle, tropical fruit and a finish of zesty acidity.

Bright and crisp, the Unoaked Chardonnay pairs perfectly with chicken piccata or grilled fish topped with fruit salsa.
